Dear Sirs:

Confirming the telephone conversation with your office of this morning I enclose my check to your order for $5.00 in payment of a bronze metal commemorating the visit of the Prince of Wales to this country. Would you be so good as to send this by registered mail to Colonel F. S. Chadbourne, Hotel Harcourt, Larkin & Sutter Streets, San Francisco, California. Please send me a memorandum of the charge, if any, for the postage.

Yours very truly,

William M. Chadbourne

CABLE ADDRESS "BOURNECHAD"

NEW YORK February 25th, 1920.

Dear Sirs:

On February 11th I wrote to you requesting that a replica of the bronze medal commemorating the visit of the Prince of Wales to this country, be sent to F. S. Chadbourne, Hotel Harcourt, Larkin & Sutter Streets, San Francisco, California, by registered mail, and enclosed my check for $5.00 to your order. I want to make sure that you have received it and that the medal was duly sent. Would you be so good as to advise me as to this?

Yours very truly,

Wm. R. Chadbourne
